

Jentel Presents continues at SAGE Tuesday

FROM STAFF REPORTS

SHERIDAN — This month's Jentel Presents will take place Tuesday from 5:30-7 p.m. downstairs at SAGE Community Arts, 21 W. Brundage St. Jentel Presents is a community outreach program featuring visual presentations and readings by residents at the Jentel Artist Residency Program. The presenters this month will include artist Andrea Burgay from Brooklyn, New York; artist Joy Nagy from New York City; artist Barbara Martin from Hillsboro, Oregon; poet Jane Wong, Bellingham, Washington; writer Sarah Resnick, Brooklyn, New York; and photographer Naomi White, Los Angeles, California.

The event is free and open to the public.

The Jentel Foundation offers dedicated individuals a supportive environment in which to further their creative development. While at Jentel, visual artists and writers have the opportunity to experience time to allow for thoughtful reflection and meditation on the creative process in a setting that preserves the agricultural and historical integrity of the land.

The Jentel Artist Residency Program accepts applications twice a year from visual artists in all media and writers in all genres for a one-month residency. A residency includes a comfortable accommodation; common living, dining and recreation areas; a private workspace and a stipend to help defray expenses during the program. For more information please visit www.jentelarts.org or call Jentel at 307-737-2311.

